DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to the Reply to Election of Species Requirement filed February 12, 2004.

Accordingly, Applicants elected Species A, claims 1, 2, 17 and 18, with traverse.

Claim 16 was previously cancelled. Claims 1-15 and 17-27 are currently pending in this application.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Scott L. Lowe (Reg. #41,458) on 02/23/2004.

In the claims:

Cancel claims 3-15 and 19-27.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1, 2, 17 and 18 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: none of the prior art of record fairly suggests or shows all of the limitations as claimed. Specifically,

Re claims 1 and 10, none of the prior art of record discloses, in combination with other limitations as claimed, an upper substrate having a hologram diffuser diffusing the revolved circularly polarized light from the liquid crystal layer, wherein the hologram diffuser formed below an upper substrate and

The most relevant references, USPN 5,629,784 of Abileah et al. and USPN 5,963,284 of Jones et al., fails to disclose or suggest a hologram diffuser formed below an upper substrate and diffusing the revolved circular polarized light from the liquid crystal layer. As shown in Fig. 1(a), the Abileah et al.'s reference only discloses a hologram diffuser 21 formed on top of a substrate 13 and diffusing the linearly polarized light from a linear polarizer 15. Meanwhile, the Jones et al.'s reference discloses a diffuser 61 formed between a liquid crystal 11 and an upper substrate 17, and diffusing light without altering a polarization of the light; however, the diffuser is not a hologram diffuser.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
